

Subject	What to Study
English	Literature Test (30)            Drama: Every dog has its day (pages 105 – 126)            Folklore: Hare and the hound (pages 31 – 35)            Poetry: The penny fiddle (page 100) + Windy Nights (workbook)            (Use your literature workbook, notes and literature textbook to prepare)
Afrikaans	Letterkunde Toets (30)            Beeldspraak/stylfigure/Digkuns terminologie            Kortverhaal: Krieketkolf            Gedigte: Windlawaaï, Die afloswedren, Dôra, Dôra            Gebruik letterkunde werk boek, nota's en Leesboek om voor te berei.
Maths	No test. Only Investigation – Functions and Relationships, Area and Perimeter.
History	The Transatlantic slave trade. Page 61 to page 79 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>➤ West Africa before the European slave trade. Pg. 62</li> <li>➤ The nature of slavery in West Africa before Europeans. Pg. 64</li> <li>➤ Slavery in the American South pg. 66</li> <li>➤ The impact of the transatlantic slave trade on slaves. Pg. 70</li> </ul> The impact of the transatlantic slave trade on different parties. Pg. 76
Geography	Volcanoes and Earthquakes            The Internal Structure of Earth – Tectonic Plates – Terms – Features of a Composite Volcano  Population Growth and Change (pages 81 – 96)            Population concepts: Birth rates, death rates and population growth rates. Infant mortality rates – Life expectancy            Factors affecting birth rates and death rates: Disease – Economic status – Family needs, attitudes and beliefs, conflict and wars, Government policy

	World population growth: Increased food production, scientific developments – improved sanitation – improved health care – immunization
Natural Sciences	Term 3 Class Test (60 marks) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Sources of energy (pages 125 – 130)</li> <li>• Potential &amp; Kinetic energy (pages 131 – 146)</li> <li>• Heat Transfer (pages 147 – 162)</li> </ul>
EMS	The Entrepreneur – The importance of entrepreneurs in our economy – Why people start their own business – Characteristics of an entrepreneur - Entrepreneurial actions – What entrepreneurs need in order to achieve success - Terminology
Technology	Only a Practical Assessment Task – Assignment.
Creative Arts	Only Practical Assessment Tasks.
LO	-