

Psychology

Left: Carey-Lee Vermoter

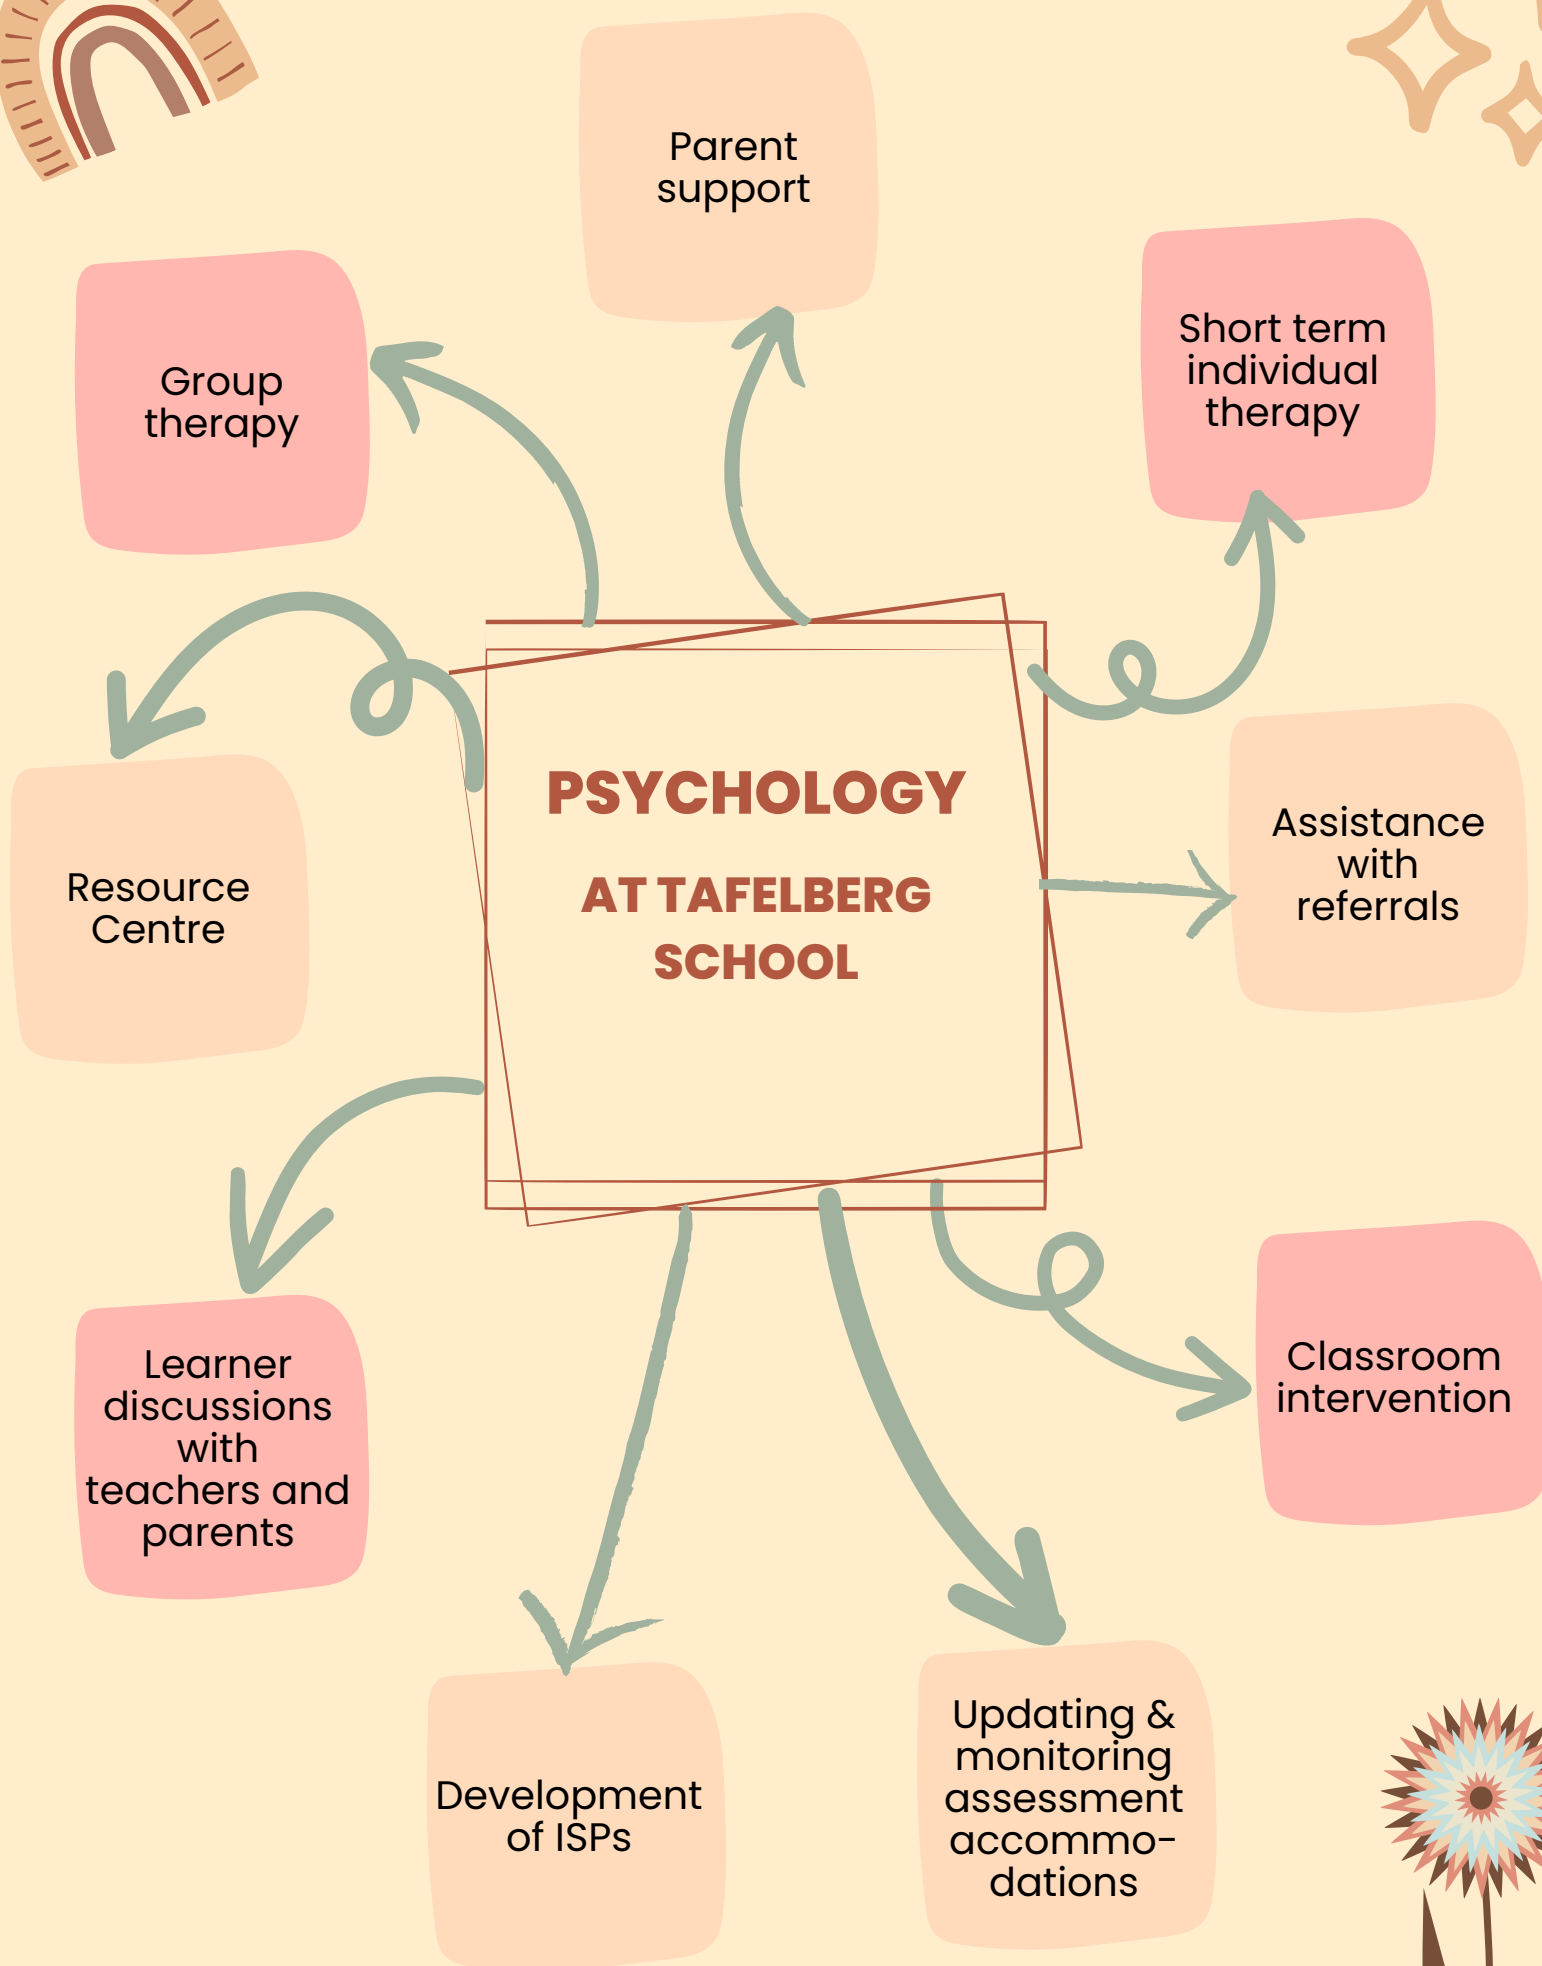

Middle: Elsabe Kidd

Right: Agnes Steenkamp

THERAPISTS ASSESS AND TREAT LEARNERS WHO:

- ✓ are struggling to adjust to the classroom environment
- ✓ have difficulty regulating their emotions or behavior
- ✓ require adaptations to the environment in order to be able to learn effectively
- ✓ have been through some kind of trauma
- ✓ show signs of excessive anxiety
- ✓ need assistance in order to build their self confidence and show a positive self esteem
- ✓ struggle to read social cues or develop appropriate peer relationships
- ✓ require monitoring to determine the effectiveness of medication

Parent support

Short term individual therapy

Group therapy

PSYCHOLOGY
AT TAFELBERG
SCHOOL

Assistance with referrals

Resource Centre

Classroom intervention

Learner discussions with teachers and parents

Updating & monitoring assessment accommodations

Development of ISPs

